LEGISLATURE READY TO RUSH TAXLESS RELIEF PROGRAM

Acting With Alacrity and Solidarity on Pinchot's
Program

TO TRANSFER MONEY

Measure To Be Called Up For
Final Vote
Tomorrow

HARRISBURG, Sept. 13.—Acting with the alacrity and solidarity strange to the administration of Governor Gifford Pinchot, the Republican controlled legislature today perfected plans to rush the executive taxless relief program through the House. The Governor's proposition for financing unemployment relief was placed on the second reading calendar of the House and the united Republican membership pledged to rush them to the Senate by the end of the week over Democratic opposition.

The plans called for passage of eight administration bills transferring money temporarily from seven state funds and appropriating a $14,086,000 total for relief on second reading in the House today.

The measure will be called up for a final vote on Friday and then sent to the Senate, which was to adjourn today until Monday.

The eight administration measures, that of appropriating accumulated money for relief purposes, earmarked about $1,000,000 of the total for old age assistance payments, beginning December 1st. It became necessary to provide funds for old age pensions because profits from the liquor stores from which the aged were to have been helped are being utilized solely for relief. Legislative leaders pointed out persons eligible for old age pensions probably are on relief rolls now and suggested the Commonwealth could afford to slide away a portion of the $20,000,000 needed for relief if the diverted funds would reduce the relief list.

Accompanying the relief financing bill on greased skids was the appropriation bill covering the expense of the special session which was printed with the various items in blank. Although Governor Pinchot has asked the legislators to vote themselves only $10.00 a day for their services, instead of the $500 for the session, it was understood the figures in the appropriation bill will be filled in by the Senate for the full statutory amount. The Republican organized majority in the House jammed the eight administration bills through its first reading with unanimous consent to waive the rule, late yesterday afternoon. They had been printed Tuesday night so that copies were available for legislators when they acted.

The Democrats redeemed their pledge to introduce a tax on gross utility company revenues for a substitute for the proposal of Governor Pinchot to borrow the money from the various state funds.

Epic "The World Moves On" Opens at Grand Tonight

Bitterness of hate, lust of power, futility of conflict, glory of faith, ecstasy of love!

These are the elements, it is announced, that go to make up "The World Moves On," described as Fox Film's "love story of a century," which opens tonight at the Grand Theatre.

Chronicling the drama of a family which, over four generations, spreads its branches over four nations of the earth, the picture comes adorned with the reputation of an epic film. Prior to its general nation-wide release it thrilled packed houses for weeks at a special two-day, $2 showing in the Criterion Theatre, New York. It is said to be the most ambitious work to date of Winfield Sheehan, the producer.

The film will reveal for the second time in America, Madeleine Carroll, glamorous star of "I Was a Spy." Miss Carroll is co-featured with Francis and Tony and the work of both won the praise of the New York critics and the plaudits of the crowds.

The starry-eyed beauty and her leading man share the laurels, however, with their distinguished supporting cast.

MRS. MORAN'S GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Peacock and Miss Madeline Seager, Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dolde and Mr. and Mrs. William Clark, Croydon, were guests this week of Mrs. A. M. Moran, Dorance street.

ASK LEGION TO MOBILIZE

Providence, R. I., Sept. 13.—Voluntary mobilization of 1000 members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars as special police to aid the 2000 National Guardsmen on strike duty, was asked by Governor Theodore F. Green today soon after he ordered all police chiefs in Rhode Island to round up every known communist directly or indirectly connected with the tense textile situation.

FATALLY INJURED

Franklin, Sept. 13 — Chauncey Brakeman, 19, and Dorothy Miller, 22, Franklin, were fatally injured early today as the car in which they were riding failed to negotiate a curve and overturned. Ada Kitefinger, Galloway, driver of the car, is reported in a critical condition.

TRACING MYSTERIOUS RADIO CALL

New York City, Sept. 13 — Coast Guards, the United States Navy and commercial radio stations, both of the east coast and west coast, pooled their facilities today in an effort to trace a mysterious distress signal apparently emanating from a ship enroute to Los Angeles from Balboa. Coast Guard headquarters in New York reported the ship might be either the S. S. Hawaii of the Inter-Island Steamship Company registered out of Honolulu or the S. S. Hawaiian, owned by the Hawaiian-American Steamship Company and of New York City register.

Coast Guard officials emphatically denied reports the ship had described itself as "in a sinking condition."

The S. S. Hawaii is a 851-ton freighter while the S. S. Hawaiian is of 6000 tons.

There was a possibility the ship in trouble was the British freighter Bradburn. An International News Service cable dispatch from Colon reported the Bradburn, carrying a cargo of cotton and phosphates from Tampa, Florida, was racing back to Balboa with a fire smoldering in the No. 1 hold. The Bradburn left Balboa for Japan on Sunday.

WOONSOCKET UNDER CONTROL

Woonsocket, R. I., Sept. 13.—National Guardsmen and local police today regained control of the city after the worst rioting in the textile strike in the New England section during which a mob of more than 4000 out of control, looted stores and one bank, and destroyed property. Many of the stores looted, according to police, were sporting goods stores and pawn shops where guns and ammunition were stolen.

One man was killed, six others were dying from injuries received in the rioting and five others were shot and wounded in the bitter conflict which raged all night and early today. The number of persons injured by stones, clubs and other missiles, could not be estimated.

The situation was brought under control today when the rioters themselves apparently weary, drifted away and five truck loads of National Guardsmen arrived to reinforce the militia and local police already on duty.

GARDEN GLORIOUS WILL HAVE WOODLAND SETTING

Decorations Chairman Promises
Novel Background
for Trevoze Show

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

TREVOZE, Sept. 13.—W. S. Nortenhelm, Trevoze, chairman of decorations for the twelfth annual Fall flower show of the Trevoze Horticultural Society, promises a most novel and yet artistic background for that event.

Bare walls will be concealed by gorgeous Autumn foliage and berried branches so arranged as to permit the 89 individual classes to nestle right into their proper environment.

Interest evidenced by entries already being registered, assure the society's greatest show, and a gala affair for flower lovers September 14 and 15. Miss Lillie V. C. Thomas, Langhorne, chairman of entries, will accept exhibits until one p. m., September 14 at the Trevoze Community House.

Former Resident Here Dies At Her Home in New York

A former Italian resident of Bristol, Mrs. Pasqualina Spiga, wife of the late Pasquale Spiga, of Haverstraw, New York, died at her home in New York on September 11, 1934.

Four children survive the deceased, Ascengio and Rose Stega and daughters residing in Italy.

Funeral services, to which relatives and friends are invited will be held from the residence of her nephew, Dominick Pizzula, 504 Jefferson avenue, Bristol, on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. High Mass in St. Ann's Church at 10 o'clock. Interment in St. Mark's Cemetery, under direction of Galzerano.

Widow Claims Body of Edward Clayton, Sea Victim

Mrs. Sarah Clayton, 148 Marsden street, Philadelphia, has claimed the lifeless body of her husband, Edward Clayton, at a New York morgue.

The body of Clayton, who lost his life when the fishing boat he was in capsized on Saturday, was at first thought to be that of a victim of the Morro Castle disaster.

Clayton, who drowned with his brother Harry, and Robert McClary, Beach Haven, N. J., captain of the craft, was accompanied on the ill-fated fishing trip by George Oldham, Newportville; James Sharp, Trevoze; and three Philadelphia friends. The latter five were able to reach shore.

The gig in which the eight men were fishing was capsized when an ocean became very rough. Identity of Clayton's body was made by his brother-in-law, Charles E. Radcliffe, Doylestown. The body of Harry Clayton is still missing; but that of Captain McClary had been recovered earlier.

AVIATOR CRASHES TO DEATH

Pittsburgh, Sept. 13.—Another casualty in the nation-wide textile strike was written into the records today as authorities investigated the airplane crash which cost Ted Taney, 38, operation manager of the Central Airlines, his life. Taney was flying a shipment of tear gas to the Rhode Island National Guards in Providence. He crashed to earth when his parachute failed to open in time to break his fall. His plane crashed in the Tuscara Mountains 10 miles east of Everett. His body will be returned here today for funeral services, his widow announced.

SCHOOL IS WASTED ON CHILD WHO IS PHYSICALLY UNFIT

School Nurse at Doylestown
So Informs Kiwanians of County Seat

COMPLIMENTS THE CLUB

Assistance On Part of Individuals and Groups is Great
Aid to Child Health

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 13.—"The school is wasted on a child that is not physically fit from his head to his feet," declared Miss Thelma Winger, Doylestown school nurse, in an interesting talk at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Doylestown last night at the Fountain House.

Miss Winger highly complimented the Kiwanis Club and expressed the deep appreciation of the faculty of the Doylestown schools for what the club has done in assisting her health department for the past five or more years.

The school nurse referred to the Kiwanis milk fund that was supplied annually until money was supplied from another welfare fund. The outstanding tribute of the evening however was paid to Kiwanian Charles Mamounis, owner of the Palace of Sweets, who personally has hauled over 250 children to the Abington Memorial Hospital during the past three years for clinic treatment and operations. Miss Winger also publicly thanked President Judge Hiram H. Keller, a past president of the club, for donating his automobile and a driver to transport children to hospitals at any time throughout the year. Miss Winger was assured by the club president, Joseph Hadler, that she could call on the club at any time for assistance in underprivileged child work and explained that the club has a substantial "special fund" to carry on this work.

The speaker of the evening was introduced by Kiwanian William H. Satterthwaite, president of the Doylestown school board, who publicly voiced his opinion of the fine service rendered to the community by Miss Winger.

"The school nurse of today has a very great responsibility for she must take an active interest in the mental as well as the physical development of the boy and girl in the public school," Miss Winger declared.

"Here in Doylestown, our children are weighed every month by my department and this weight is marked on the report cards sent home to the parents so that they too, can check up on their children."

"Last year our schools had the best health record in a number of years for communicable diseases, with fewer cases."

"My only regret is that members of the Kiwanis Club have not been able to see the rapid progress made by the boys and girls who have been served with milk as a result of the generosity of your club."

"Last year forty-three children were on milk and five children received milk two times a day. Two children gained fourteen pounds, one child gained thirteen pounds and another gained eleven pounds. All of them gained something as a result of the milk."

Miss Winger explained that some of the school children, through special arrangements with the local welfare council, are fed at the school cafeteria.

This year the Doylestown school, for the express purpose of examining and classifying pupils in the "special class" conducted in the school, will have the advice of an expert psychiatrist and an expert psychologist from one of the State hospitals. Students will be examined and the family history compiled before a decision is made as to what course of study and teaching to apply to each case.

SENATOR INTERESTED IN RESTORING AQUEDUCT

C. J. Buckman Will Investigate
to Learn if Funds
Are Available

MANY SPONSOR BILL

State Senator Clarence J. Buckman, of Langhorne, said today that he is deeply interested in the restoration and repair of the Tophick Aqueduct at Point Pleasant, that collapsed a week ago.

The Bucks county Senator said that he will at once see if there is any money available from the Department of Forests and Waters for the immediate repair or construction of a new section of the aqueduct.

"If there is no money available now, I will sponsor a bill at the regular session of the Legislature for an appropriation to construct the aqueduct and the maintenance of the canal and Roosevelt Park in general," Senator Buckman said today.

Residents of the Point Pleasant, Centre Bridge and New Hope sections are very much interested in the rebuilding of the aqueduct for they realize, together with every other resident of Bucks county and others who know the territory, that the canal and park are two of Pennsylvania's outstanding beauty spots.

Progress Being Made On Removal of Trolley Rails

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 13.—Progress is being made on the removal of old trolley rails, poles, ties and overhead wires, here, which project commenced on South Pennsylvania avenue and Philadelphia avenue yesterday. The work is expected to take about two weeks.

All equipment has been purchased by Morris Mann, of this borough.

The State Highway Department also has a force of men here and as soon as the rails and ties are removed, that section of the street in which the tracks were placed will be paved with macadam and asphalt.

As soon as this job is done, the rails, ties, wires and poles on North Delmor Avenue and on Pennsylvania avenue, north of Trenton avenue, will be removed. This work will be given out under another contract and bids for the equipment will be opened the latter part of the month.

Trolley car service was abandoned several weeks ago and it is suspected that all equipment will be removed from the streets with the exception of North Pennsylvania avenue, where the rails will not be taken up because they are laid in concrete. The street there is in excellent condition. The wires and poles will be removed, however.

LODGE ACTIVITIES

DRUNKEN DRIVER IS FINED $200 BY BUCKS CO. COURT

Anthony Rybaczewski, Philadelphia, Must Also Pay
The Costs

FIND ELEVEN TRUE BILLS

Guiseppe Straczic, Bristol, and Frank De Penta, Bristol,
Must Each Pay Costs

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 13.—Counsel for Alex Legat, Springfield township farmer, who pleaded guilty to the murder of Paul Kulser, 60, a neighbor, presented argument to Judge Hiram H. Keller, in court here yesterday. It is expected that sentence will be imposed upon Legat within a few days.

Anthony Rybaczewski, Philadelphia, who pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle while drunk, paid $200 fine and costs.

The grand jury yesterday found 11 true bills and three not true.

Guiseppe Straczic, of Bristol, was directed to pay the costs on a bill charging Frank DePente with assault and battery; and DePente was sentenced to pay the costs on another bill charging Straczic similarly.

Rudolph Sauerman was directed to pay the costs in the case of Sauerman vs. Fred Ulmer. Assault and battery was the charge.

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 13.—A Bucks County farmer and his prospective bride found their plans for marriage thwarted on Friday, the 13th, and were subsequently lodged in the Bucks County prison, here.

The couple involved, John S. Gordon, Jr., and Dena Bowman, Quakertown R. D., are both charged with larceny by bailment, and in the Bucks County courts here this week, sentence was deferred.

John S. Gordon, Sr., a Philadelphia, who maintains a farm near Quakertown, permitted his son, John, Jr., to live on the farm, providing that he brought no "female" on the place, and behaved himself.

The father testified that he left household possessions, including a Beechwood range, hat rack and a table, for his use. But one day the younger Gordon decided he would like to have a housekeeper so he went to Passer and employed Dena Bowman. Miss Bowman came to the Gordon farm, and evidently was not accepted as a member of the Gordon family.

Both the elder Gordon and a sister, Mrs. Sarah Hensley, 12 Hellertown avenue, Quakertown, made up their minds either the housekeeper must leave the Gordon farm or the son's source of income would be cut off. It was then that Gordon and his housekeeper decided to "hock" the kitchen stove, hat rack and table to a junk man in order to get money for food, it is alleged. For the stove, they received exactly $4.

Appearing in court, Gordon told the Court he was "pinched on their wedding eve." He explained he planned to marry Miss Bowman the next day. Pleading guilty to the charge the defendant testified that he sold the stove and furnishings in order to buy food.

Miss Dena Bowman, formerly of Passer, admitted to the court she came to the Gordon home to keep house with a promise of getting wages. Thus far she has received no pay, she testified.

"At first I would have married him, but now it's different; I don't know just what kind of a family I might get into," she said on the stand.

However, she admitted to District Attorney Arthur M. Eastburn that if "John" asked her in the right way she "wasn't quite certain whether she would refuse after all."

Judge Calvin S. Boyer suspended sentence with reference to Miss Bowman on the condition that she leave Mr. Gordon's home, and not marry him. The Court deferred sentence with regard to Gordon.

Pleading guilty to four bills of forgery and uttering a forgery, Frank Pettman, of Yardley, was sentenced by President Judge Hiram H. Keller to pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of $1, and serve from 5 to 10 years in labor in the Eastern State Penitentiary on three bills. Sentence was suspended on another bill.

A former Philadelphia policeman, William J. Richards, of Siles, who pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, was sentenced to serve not less than 3 months nor more than three years in the County Prison by President Judge Hiram H. Keller.

Richards, who was returning home after drinking in a Trevoze taproom, collided with a car driven by Herman L. Runze, of Siles, on August 26, damaging it to the extent of $75. The accident happened near Parkland.

Mrs. May Richards, flashily dressed, of Tacony, who told the Court Richards married her September 1, 1920, testified that "women were his down-fall." She had lodged a detainee

"THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER"

A hundred and twenty years ago this morning Francis Scott Key was answered; by the dawn's early light our flag of fifteen stripes and fifteen stars was still above Fort Mifflin, the defense of Baltimore, which has been acquired as a national shrine. Today all over the United States and in all its possessions the words "The Star-Spangled Banner" were sung to John Stafford Smith's air for "Anacreon in Heaven."

"The Star-Spangled Banner" is the national anthem. It has been assailed in every detail. Its text has been attacked as stilted, offensive to the descendants of the British who burned the capitol at Washington, provincial, uncharitable. The air is admittedly beyond the compass of the ordinary voice. But words and music have won for themselves a place of dignity, a solemn meaning, in the national mind. He who can hear them at home without reverent emotional response of gratitude to the men who have held the flag aloft is callous indeed; abroad, at ceremonial display, on shipboard or in the field, they proclaim a message none but an indurated internationalist can disregard.

There have been numerous efforts to supplant "The Star-Spangled Banner"; money prizes have been put up to stimulate poets and composers unmindful of patriotic feeling and indifferent to the legitimate self-satisfaction and popular acclaim the production of its successor would convey. No better national song has resulted from these well-intentioned activities; none is likely to result from them. "The Star-Spangled Banner" will continue to stimulate the imaginations and fire the ambitions of men and women until that day on which the people themselves discover, nominate and spontaneously adopt its successor.

BEARDS!

Rumors from Paris that beards for young bloods are coming back are certain to point the finger of suspicion at the barber guild. If the razor is discarded, it will be due to a conspiracy among the barbers inspired by the possibility of more profit from beard trimming and cultivating than from beard eradication.

Young Americans made serious minded by the present struggle for existence might consider the fashion for its possibilities in giving them the appearance of wisdom if not the actual wisdom of Solomon. There is something imposing and impressive in a natty Van Dyke.

But should whiskers come back what shape and form will they take? Will the new school of beard boosters affect the full set of whiskers? Or the space type? Or the parted-in-the-middle variety? Or the goatee?

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything. What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 8% of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every 15 minutes. When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomato, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it for it may be a colored (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and sends the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for—25¢. ©1934, C.M.C.

ier isn't married. Everything is going fine for the wedding, Jack and ry have made all their preparations; incidentally the part of Jack is played by Pheanias Webber, o certainly does honor to the role. He the part of Mary is taken by th Ivins, a popular Fallsington l.

ust when everything is going oothly, Uncle Abner, played by vid Lapp, returns from the Orient h his fiancée, Samantha, played by anor Lucas, and announces that y are going to have a double wed- ing with Jack. This of course throws ck in a dilemma, and his two boy ends, Ted and Harris, played by ck Walker and Edward Reading, try help him out because Jack owes m money and they realize it will "too bad" if Jack doesn't get the eritance.

They try to kidnap Uncle Abner and e foiled in their various attempts by st almost getting Eliza, the colored rant, which is being played by dia H. Lodge; after this mistake, e boys almost kidnap Lawyer own, who is being portrayed by one the popular Fallsington teachers, Bennett Strait. Brown has come to ask Jack's advice about "making love to Susan Christopher." The part of Susan is played by Miriam Christman. Susan is a crochety old maid who will take "the next best" since she can't marry Abner.

There are many laugh provoking hilariously funny scenes throughout the play. The other important speaking roles are as follows: Marie, Dorothy Lovett; Virginia, Daisy Anderson; Rajah Allah Bibi, Stanley Satterthwaite; 1st gangster, Croasdale Tomlinson; 2nd gangster, H. E. Smith; O'Flarety, the blustering detective, and his assistant, Mugs, played by Andrew Chamberlin and Ducky Fabian; Reverend Turnipseed will be portrayed by James P. Doheny.

The high school girls of the town are learning their songs with great aptitude. There are thirty-six taking parts in the singing and dancing choruses. They are: Florence Carver, Blanche Darrah, Marie Grunert, Kathryn Reading, Alice Smythe, Clara Ashton, Mary Mershon, Nita Carver, Mary Farrell, Alice Kamper, Lillian Van Aken, Anita Cregor, Mary Dank, Catherine Cryer, Alberta Satterthwaite, Hazel Vandenberg, Dorothea White, Edna White, Virginia Bennett, Alice Satterthwaite, Eleanor White, Emma Kratzer, Dorothy Barnhill, Veronica Banner, Madeline Spangler,

Eleanor Nevins, Geraldine Nevins. The business men taking part in the "High Steppers of the Gay 90's" and the singers of the Mystic Shrine will be announced later. The whole community is enthusiastic and are looking forward to the finest show that has ever been staged here.

Roads That Mean Jobs

ROADS that are SUBSTANTIAL— ROADS that are PERMANENT— BUILD THEM OF CONCRETE

The Federal Government has granted $200,000,000 to the states for highway work. Through your State Highway Department, the U. S. A. will furnish roads that mean jobs, funds for building roads. Home labor, now on relief, will get jobs again. The wages will be spent in home stores. And there will be no burden on the home taxpayer.

CONCRETE ROADS answer the Government's every specification.

They provide men with jobs.

They are substantial—maintenance cost is much less than that of any other type.

They are permanent—outlasting any other type.

And you know that they give you the greatest driving safety, comfort and convenience—But did you know—that they save you money on gas, tires, depreciation and repairs for every mile you drive? That also is now a proved fact.

Insist on CONCRETE for your roads—get the most and the best road for the money—and the maximum employment for labor!

Roads are the arteries that give life to any town or city. They bring business to home merchants—they make or break the community's reputation with strangers. They make the town a better place to live.

Portland cement, basic ingredient of CONCRETE, is the material which engineers have used in building America's finest roads—nearly 100,000 miles of them. Cement has closed the gaps between buyer and seller by making modern automobile traffic possible. And countrywide tests have shown that of all types of paving, all costs considered—CONCRETE brought all these advantages at lower cost.

The Impromptu Picnic Surely Requires a Quick Cake Recipe at Hand

I am wondering how many times you have been confronted with the problem of entertaining with very little advance notice. I'm sure we can all remember occasions when we had the merriest, happiest kind of time, and very little thought given to invitations and arrangements. Just a few quick phone calls, and our friends gathered together for a little merry-making. I remember such an occasion when I was visiting, and my hostess received a phone call to join a moonlight picnic! The only requirement was to bring along anything the refrigerator or cake box could afford. Having limited time in which to make ready, I offered to bake the cakes while she busied herself with a few minor arrangements.

The moonlight picnic was held on a river bank where one had an excellent chance to watch the moon rise and look over the beautiful surrounding country. However, after devouring this moonlight soul food for some time, a hungry, practical member of the party suggested opening the lunch boxes. And what a miscellaneous assortment of food! Most anyone's appetite could be reached, for there was anything from frankfurters to candied violets!

I'm going to give you the quick cake recipe in the event you are caught in a similar situation.

Miss Winger particularly praised the work of the dental clinic in the Doylestown school and told of the fine service rendered to the community by the school dentist, a Philadelphia woman. She also explained that absolutely no medicine is given in school and that no wound is dressed until a local physician has been consulted. The school nurse also conducts a class in personal hygiene and nursing.

Kiwanian Mamounis, who has been ill for more than two months, was welcomed back last night, as were Kiwanians Charles Rowe and Walter Fretz. Dr. George E. Cressman, newly-elected superintendent of the Doylestown school system, was a guest.

Secretary "Russ" Thomas read a letter of invitation from Jacob C. Fisher, of Devon, chairman of a special committee appointed to stage a southeast district testimonial dinner for Dr. Carmon Ross, at the Valley Forge Hotel, Norristown, either September 18th or 25th. Dr. Ross will retire as Lieutenant Governor of the district this month. The Norristown Club in the center of the district, has consented to act as the host club.

Announcement was made that Kiwanis will meet as usual at the Doylestown Fair grounds on Wednesday night of fair week for the regular weekly meeting.

against her husband charging non-support.

Asked by the Court with whom he was living at Siles, Richards, now a truck driver, testified he was "living with the mother of my son." He was also directed to pay the costs of prosecution.

Pleading guilty to a charge of operating his car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, Joseph Calhoun, of Siles, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs by President Judge Keller.

Twin brothers, Daniel and James Yeager, of Holmesburg, who pleaded guilty of larceny and receiving stolen goods, were discharged by Judge Calvin S. Boyer, and placed on probation for three years. County Detective Russo was appointed probation officer. The boys were directed to pay the costs of prosecution.

Bernard Hartzler, Haycock township farmer charged with non-support, who was given a hearing before Judge Calvin S. Boyer, was directed to make an effort to secure a job and help his wife support the children. The case was continued until further notice by the Court.

Interesting Ceremony Is Held For Cup Presentation

CROYDON, Sept. 13.—The members of the Joseph A. Schumacher Post, V. F. W., members of the Ladies' Auxiliary and friends of the Post, and the Cadet Corps, who were present Monday night at the post rooms when the cups were presented to the Cadet Corps, which were won by them at the Pottstown flag raising ceremony, will not readily forget the experience, but it will linger long in their memory.

On July 28th, the Pottstown Post,

No. 780, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States held a flag raising ceremony, in which Croydon Cadet Corps and other musical organizations were invited to participate. The Joseph A. Schumacher Post Cadet Corps won the first award of a silver cup for the best-drilled performance, and the second award which also consisted of a silver cup was made to the drum major of the same corps. Monday night was set aside for the presentation of the said cups, which was made by Mrs. Rachel Montayne, state historian of the V. F. W. Ladies Auxiliary, who at her own expense had the cups engraved with the name of the Corps, the date and the place of the awarding of them.

The program included: music by the cadet corps, commander William Keen of the corps, introduced the master of ceremonies, the chaplain of the post, the Rev. Andrew G. Solla, Th. D., Dr. Solla spoke briefly of the progress that the corps has made in the short time of its existence. He paid special tribute to the officers, commander Keen, junior vice commanders, Thomas Steward and William DeVoe, and also to the parents of the boys who have encouraged them. Then he introduced Mrs. Montayne, who with a very appropriate discourse, made the presentation; and was answered with a brief speech of acceptance by the drum major of the corps. Comrade junior vice commander John Tray, of the Trevoise Post 2341, spoke briefly.

Attendees were then favored with talent as follows: Duet, the Kell sisters; solo, Mr. Ernest, Philadelphia; xylophone solo, Fred Aufschlag, Oak Lane, accompanied by Mrs. Aufschlag; piano solo, Mr. Lefterty; solo by Mr. Goodman, accompanied by one of the Kell sisters. After the program refreshments were served, and dancing enjoyed.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep . . . Vigor . . . Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS . . . a doctor's prescription . . . which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes, for they may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS . . . the old reliable relief that contains no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

To The People of Bristol and Vicinity

September 13th and 14th

We believe that you will be vitally interested in a film which this theatre will present on September 13-14. We believe that this picture contains the answer to many of our tangled thoughts today. We believe that it is the thought of every mother in the world—that it pictures the true love of people, which holds us together. We believe that no one can possibly leave the theatre where it is shown without feeling better for having seen it. We believe that it is the greatest offering to a theatre-going public in years. That it has the most general appeal, reaching the hearts of all people, young and old, of any picture ever produced. AND BEHIND IT ALL RUNS ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL LOVE STORIES THAT HAS EVER ENDURED THE AGES. We confidently say that we were never so sure that you would want to see a picture more, and so we proudly announce the coming of "THE WORLD MOVES ON," direct from its $2.00 two-a-day run at the Criterion Theatre, New York City. There will be no advance in our prices. The dates are September 13th and 14th.

Sincerely,

FALL BOXING SEASON TO OPEN SEPT. 24TH

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 13—The fall boxing season gets under way at the Arena, Monday, September 24th, when George Levy, heavy fisted Trenton scrapper, swaps punches in a return match with Bucky Keys, sensational Jersey City youngster, in the 10 round wind-up.

Johnny Ipp, Arena matchmaker, ran into plenty of trouble getting Sammy Perro, Levy's pilot to accept the return go over the long distance. Their first match was a spectacular eight round draw that had the customers standing and howling from the opening bell to the final clang ending the bitter brawl. Levy, considered one of the foremost lightweight prospects in the east, has never traveled ten rounds and Perro was loathe to accept the match. However, insinuations that he was afraid to tangle with Keys again was the bait that brought the signing of the contracts.

Both boys are the best of the new crop of lightweights and their forthcoming battle should be one of the best scraps that the Stockton street cock-pit has ever witnessed.

A strong supporting card will back up the "natural" wind-up. Puggy Snyder, pugnacious leather-pusher from Vineland, will cross gloves with the clever and capable Jimmy Phillips of Bernardsville, who held Paulie Walker to a draw in Newark last season. This go will be for six frames at 150 pounds.

Another six rounder brings together Meyer Goss, flashy Trenton Negro and Joe Macelli of Jersey City. Both men are lightweights.

Stanley Frontek, Trenton youngster and former amateur champ, will strive to continue his climb upward at the expense of Bobby King, colored scholastic star. Both boys are in the middleweight class.

Whitey Braun, of Hightstown and John Henry Cheatem, of Newark, complete a slam-bang card of fistic entertainment. Popular prices will prevail.

Mrs. Helen Stark and daughter, Mary, Colville, Wash., was a guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Linton Martin, Radcliffe street. Mr. and Mrs. Martin and their guests spent Sunday in Wildwood, N. J.

EIGHT TOUGH GAMES ARE LISTED BY FARM SCHOOL

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 13—Eight tough games are listed on National Farm School's 1934 football schedule that will open on Saturday afternoon, October 6th, with Albright College Fresh, at home. All games will be played on Alumni Field this season.

Coach Samuel B. Samuels, former Massachusetts Aggie athlete and coach at Farm School for the past team years, has a squad of forty-five huskies who have been attending his weekly football school and clinic for the past three months, in addition to outside scrimmage for the past month. Football classes are conducted two nights a week.

The 1934 schedule includes two new teams, Nassau Collegiate, of Long Island, and Passaic Teachers' College, of Passaic, N. J. The other games are with teams who have battled the Green and Gold Bulldogs in many a hectic contest.

The complete schedule is as follows:

October 6, Albright Fresh, of Reading, at home; October 13, Nassau Collegiate, of Long Island, at home; October 20, Westchester Military Academy, of Peekskill, N. Y., at home; October 27, Ursinus College Fresh, of Collegeville, at home; November 3, West Chester Teachers' College Jay Vees, at home; November 10, Stockbridge Agricultural College, of Amherst, Mass., at home; November 17, Passaic Teachers' College, at home; November 23, MacKenzie Prep, of Scarsdale, N. Y., at home.

"We have never faced a stiffer schedule," declared Coach Samuels, yesterday. "That is not my opinion but the opinion of several of the nearby college and prep school coaches with whom I had the privilege of serving on the staff of a collegiate football clinic the past winter. I wish that we did have a few 'breathers' on the schedule, for every game will be a strenuous affair. We have about 20 good men on the first string. The backfield will be entirely new with the exception of one man. In spite of that fact we have concentrated most of the time on blocking and timing. Scrimmages so far show that we will have a smart blocking team and a number of smart ball-carriers.

"Our line is composed entirely of seniors, from end to end, and they are all hardened veterans of several football campaigns, averaging about 185 pounds."

"Last year the Green and Gold Bulldogs, as they are known on the gridiron, lost but one game, to Ursinus Fresh, 6 to 0, but the Collegeville outfit failed to score a single first down. It was the only touchdown scored against the Bulldogs during the year and that was not made by rushing the ball over.

The co-captains of the team this year are Rosner Triol, former Abington High griddler, who plays an end, and Ed Wascavage, of Duryea, Pa., a tackle.

First-string material in the backfield includes Pete Robinson, of Woodbury, N. J., and "Schlep" Segal, of Cleveland, both quarterbacks; Manny Myers, of Philadelphia, a senior who played on the scrub team for three seasons, and now fullback; Sandy Sacks, the lone backfield veteran halfback, and Wilson Triol, of Abington High, a freshman, and brother of the veteran end, who will play the other halfback position.

On the line the veterans include Rosner Triol, Abington, and King Ziegler, New York City, who will do the kicking; Primo Cohen, 220-pound giant tackle from Philadelphia, and Ed Wascavage, 185 pounds, tackle; Sniffer Bogard, Passaic, N. J., guard weighing 180 pounds; and Ham Golombek, of Portsmouth, Va., guard, and Bill Lucas, 190-pound center, of Phillipsburg, Pa.

Reserve backfield material includes Snatcher Katz, of Pittsburgh; Curley Pearlstein, New York City; and Ripper Meltzer, of Philadelphia, all juniors.

In the way of reserve linemen Coach Samuels has Buster Bruskin, Media; Fats Altman, New York City; Copper Schenckman, Hamilton, O.; Johnny Hoffman and Jim Cohen, of Philadelphia.

The Bulldogs will play three scrub games before the opening game with Albright on October 6. On September 22, the first team will play a game against the scrubs at which time four well known eastern college football officials will take charge of the game in a rule interpretation clinic on Alumni Field.

"The Farm School Alumni Association has taken a greater interest in football this year than ever before," declared Coach Samuels. "All our games are at home this year and for that reason we have gone to great expense in getting teams that will attract the crowds and will give the sports fans some real games and the players real competition."

WINTER CARE OF SUMMER BULBS

Bulbs of gladioli and tubers of dahlias ought to be dug and put in storage as soon as the frost blacks the foliage of the dahlias. It will do them no good to remain in the ground for further freezing. The gladioli gives no trouble in the way of winter storage, as it needs only to be stored in a dry, frost-proof place. Dahlias, however, are a different proposition.

When they are dug the stalks should be cut off close to the cluster of roots and they should be placed roots upward in the sun to permit the sap to drain from the hollow stalks. Do not allow them to stand outdoors over night, as a frost will injure them. Take them under cover as soon as the stems are drained.

Many experts store the roots upside down in order to be certain that no supply of moisture remains in the stems to start rot. They may be stored in sand, dry earth or peat moss, which is much used for the purpose. The most practical method for the average gardener is to store them in boxes fully covered with soil. It is a good idea to store them roots upward for a time until they are thoroughly dry, after which they may be righted. If allowed to remain reversed, when it comes time to plant them the sprouts will be found to have made a complete turn to grow toward the light, and when the roots are planted the tip of the growing sprout is pointing downward and will need to make another turn to come through the soil.

When dahlias are being stored for the winter it is a good idea also to store a supply of soil and flower pots or boxes, because the old idea which prevailed in our grandmothers' day, of sprouting dahlias in the house before putting them out, is coming into vogue again. The stock advice to plant late is followed by late bloom and not half a crop of dahlias is secured in the average garden where this advice is followed too faithfully.

The roots may be divided about April 1 or a little later and planted in pots or boxes and started into growth, to be set out as soon as the weather is safe. This will start the dahlias season in late July or early August and give a long enough season to make them worth planting.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bell, 811 Jefferson avenue, are vacationing for a week at Beach Haven Crest, N. J., where they are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Arrison.

The Black Uhlan Returns

By BURNLEY

THEY said that Max Schmeling was all washed up after Baer smashed him to the carpet with one of his wild and woolly right-hand swings a year ago last June. When young Steve Hamas cut the once-formidable Black Uhlan to ribbons in their Philadelphia scrap last spring, the boys who had tabbed Schmeling as a hollow shell just nodded their heads to the accompaniment of the inevitable "I told you so."

And then, finally, the black-haired bomber, who had once held the most coveted crown of pugilism, was held to a draw by that battered fistic relic, Paulino Uzcudun. That seems to make it unanimous—Max Schmeling was through as a fighter.

Meanwhile, Germany had pinned its last hopes on another heavyweight, a husky, blond youth named Walter Neusel. Neusel came over to America and won a number of important fights, licking King Levinsky and Tommy Loughran, among others. He made a hit with his aggressive slam-bang style, and earned a rating among the first four heavyweight contenders who were to fight it out for the next crack at Baer.

When young Herr Neusel agreed to fight Max Schmeling at Hamburg, Germany, late last month, he regarded this match as just a warm-up for his prospective elimination battles with the other leading contenders. This Schmeling, he was nothing but a has-been, and Walter expected to win easily.

But something had happened to Max Schmeling. When the gong
